

ESSER and EANS Funding Overview

Haskell Education is dedicated to helping educators find furniture and equipment that will help them reach their learning goals. The recent government stimulus bills provide funds to help provide a safe, healthy school environment and make up for lost learning time during the pandemic.

Get a refresher on the ESSER and EANS funding programs and discover the classroom furniture and equipment that are covered by these programs.